CRTC PUBLIC DOCUMENTS NOW ON INTERNET

OTTAWA/HULL– The CRTC today announced that Internet users will have access to its public documents through its dedicated World Wide Web server, beginning April 3, 1995 at 9:00 a.m.

CRTC documents will be accessible, in both official languages, from a Table of Contents using Hypertext links. This will allow users to browse through sections and follow a point of interest along its links to other, cross-referenced areas of the table of contents.

The media and members of the public will thus be able to easily consult CRTC news releases, current public notices and other announcements, as well as general background information on the Commission, fact sheets and decisions on specific broadcasting and telecommunications issues, Canadian legislation governing these two industries, and approved industry codes.

The CRTC's Internet address is: http://www.crtc.gc.ca
